

Bodleian iSkills course list

Finding scholarly materials
Course title	Format
Getting started in Oxford libraries
Keeping up to date with research
Preparing for your literature review in the Social Sciences
Scholarly literature for your research

Reference management
Course title	Format
Referencing: choosing and using software for referencing
Referencing: EndNote
Referencing: RefWorks
Referencing: Zotero

Specialist materials
Course title	Format
Archives and modern papers for Social Sciences and History
Discovering archives at the Bodleian Libraries

Research Data Management
Course title	Format
Data sources for research – discovery, access and use
Managing research data and Data Management Planning (DMPs)
Working with sensitive research data

Open Scholarship
Course title	Format
Your thesis, copyright and ORA
Digital Induction to open access (MSD): e-learning course
Fundamentals of open access
Logistics of open scholarship
Forum of open scholarship
UKRI open access policy briefing
Foundations of copyright for researchers
Foundations of copyright for teaching
Playing in the open: getting familiar with Creative Commons licenses
Copyright: the card game

Medical Sciences and Mathematical, Physical and Life Sciences
Course title	Format
Introduction to searching: how to find literature on a topic in medicine and health care
Introduction to systematic reviews, scoping reviews and evidence syntheses
Introduction to EndNote
Introduction to RefWorks
Introduction to Zotero
Easier referencing with RefWorks for science and medicine undergraduates
Sources for Science: learning the craft of evaluating information and referencing academic sources online
Get up to speed with finding papers for your studies (MPLS)
Get up to speed with finding papers for your studies (MSD)
Successful searching for engineering and computer science research
Successful searching for chemistry and materials science research
Successful searching for maths, statistics and physics research
Research metrics and citation analysis tools part 1: what makes a journal a 'top' journal?
Research metrics and citation analysis tools part 2: article and researcher metrics

History
Course title	Format
Online sources for historians
Newspapers and other online news sources from the 17 th to 21 st centuries
Information resources for modern global history
Sources for US History	